

Climate & Racial Justice Campus Associate

The Racial Justice & Climate Campus Associate is a part-time (8 hours/week) position for a person interested in the intersections of Climate Action and Racial Justice, and the work of challenging Environmental Racism. The Associate will engage with campuses on issues of climate and racial justice, such as in organizing events, and promoting resources (such as speakers) at those campuses. The Associate will help identify persons or resources at campuses who might be available in other contexts, such as at churches. In addition, the Associate will be creating resources and working with CSCS staff to deepen and expand the Center's intersectional focus around racial and climate justice. The Climate & Racial Justice Campus Associate is a remote position, and is paid on an hourly rate. This position will work especially with the following Mennonite college campuses: Eastern Mennonite University, Goshen College, Bluffton University, Canadian Mennonite University, Conrad Grebel University College, Tabor College, Hesston College, Bethel College, or Fresno Pacific University.
